The percentage of students who defaulted on their federal student loans is called the Cohort Default Rate (CDR). It shows the percentage of this school’s students who were more than 270 days (9 months) behind on their federal student loans within three years of when the first payment was due. This is the most recent CDR reported by the U.S. Department of Education.

Definitions

1. “Number of Students Who Began Program” (also referred to as “Cohort Population”) means the number of students who began the program who are scheduled to complete the program within the reporting calendar year, and includes all the students who remained enrolled after their cancellation period.

2. “Students Available for Graduation” is the Number of Students Who Began Program minus the Students Unavailable for Graduation.

“Students Unavailable for Graduation” is the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.

3. “Graduates” (also referred to as “On-time Graduates”) is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the program length.

4. “Completion Rate” is the number of Graduates divided by the Number of Students Available for Graduation.

5. “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of Graduates minus the number of Graduates Unavailable for Employment.

“Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates, who after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.

6. “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who are gainfully employed in a single position for which the institution represents the program prepares its graduates within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the period of employment must begin within six months of the announcement of the examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.

7. “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.

8. Salary is as reported by the student.
STUDENT’S RIGHT TO CANCEL AND REFUND POLICY

The student has the right to cancel this enrollment agreement and withdraw from the Wharton School MBA Program for Executives by submitting a written notice of cancellation to:

Peggy Bishop Lane
Wharton MBA Program for Executives
The Wharton School
Steinberg Conference Center, Suite 108
255 South 38th Street
Philadelphia, PA 19104-6340
Phone: (215) 898-5887, Fax: (215) 898-2598

If notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, student shall receive a 100% refund of the amount paid less any nonrefundable charges identified in the Fees and Charges section below.

Student may withdraw from a course after instruction has started and receive a pro rata refund for the unused portion of the tuition and other refundable charges if the student has completed 60% or less of the instruction for the academic term.

Withdrawal from Wharton School may be effectuated by the student’s written notice or by the student’s conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student’s lack of attendance.

If the Wharton School cancels or discontinues a course or educational program, the school will make a full refund of all charges.

Refunds will be paid within 30 days of cancellation or withdrawal.

If the student received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

If the student obtains a loan to pay for the educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. If the student defaults on a federal or state loan, both of the following may occur:

1. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.

2. The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government financial assistance until the loan is repaid.
